Dear Family and Friends,

The Courageous Worship Church Women's Ministry is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization committed to empowering women and strengthening communities through impactful outreach, leadership development, and purposeful engagement. Serving more than 100 individuals, the ministry creates meaningful opportunities that inspire growth, connection, and lasting transformation.

Guided by a vision to create measurable impact, the ministry actively partners with organizations and sponsors who share a commitment to uplifting communities and investing in lasting change. Proceeds from this initiative will support a scholarship foundation established in honor of Eboni, whose life and legacy continue to inspire. Her journey with lupus fuels a deeper purpose: to raise awareness and create opportunities for others to thrive.

Through faith, service, and intentional outreach, the Courageous Worship Church Women's Ministry extends its impact beyond the church, building pathways for education, empowerment, and generational change.

We are honored to invite you to support and sponsor the 8th Annual Courageous Worship Church Women's Ministry Brunch, themed "God, I Say Yes." This signature event brings together women, leaders, and community partners for a powerful experience of inspiration, connection, and purpose.

As a sponsor, you will gain meaningful visibility while aligning your brand with a mission-driven initiative that directly impacts lives, strengthens communities, and creates lasting change. This is an opportunity to connect with an engaged audience and demonstrate your commitment to purpose and community leadership.

The event will be held at Courageous Worship Church, 6865 Factory Shoals Road, Austell, Georgia 30168, on October 3, 2026, from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM.

For sponsorship opportunities or to create a customized partnership, please contact Lady Natasha Freeman at wearecourageousworshipchurch@gmail.com or 404.680.8991.

Eboni Iman Rodriguez Memorial Scholarship

A Legacy of Strength & Faith

Eboni Iman Rodriguez (January 31, 1995 – December 23, 2024) was a brilliant light and a multi-talented force of nature who lived her life out loud. Her radiant smile and infectious laugh lit up every room she walked into. She possessed a mountain-moving voice and used her vast creative gifts to build up her community as an academic achiever, an accomplished flute player, an honor chorus vocalist, a district award-winning theater actress, and a deeply dedicated worship leader for Courageous Worship Church. Her excellence earned her induction into the National Thespian and National Spanish Honor Societies. Above all, Eboni loved God with all her heart and lived faithfully by Matthew 6:33. Outside of her music, the ocean was her ultimate tranquil place—the beach was where she always went to find rest.

What truly defined Eboni was her beautiful capacity to love. She adored butterflies, loved her family and friends ferociously, gave everyone the benefit of doubt, and chose to see the good in everyone and in everything. She was a loving daughter, devoted wife, and faithful friend. Despite enduring childhood trauma, bullying, mental health battles, and the severe physical challenges of Lupus, Eboni never quit. Out of her struggles grew a deep passion for God, music, the creative arts, and youth mental health. To keep her melody alive, this scholarship provides financial assistance to Georgia students who mirror her tenacious spirit and invests directly in the next generation of resilient leaders.
